Leadership crisis is evident in public and private sector in different parts of the world. This leadership has been criticized and charged for commercial and ethical failures. In recent time, modernization of leadership started and it places strong emphasize on values and ethics. Value-Based Leadership discussion appeared and it put the importance on ethics and values in leadership. Through many leadership failures in America and Europe and than search for leaders who cares for ethics and positive values in the organisation showed the importance of values for for successful management in the organisation. Islamic leadership is a value based leadership. As a set of ethical rules, islamic leadership is an excellent model of leadership for a successful organisation. In this research we are going to use content analysis. In a comparison to a conventional leadership islamc leaderhips promisses higher succes and benefit for the organisation ant its memebers.

Keywords: Leadership, Islamic Leadership, Crisis, Value-Based Leadership.