ABSTRACT

Sheltered Immersion Observation Protocol or SIOP is a contemporary method of teaching content-based ESL at schools all over the world. Developed by Echevarria, Vogt and Short (2013), the model quickly adapted by many language teachers in the USA. The method is accepted to be an empirically validated approach to teach all English learners. There are eight interrelated components to The SIOP® Model (Echevarria, Vogt & Short, 2012).
